Inside The Next New Music Report

FOR SALE: WJUL Lost 25 Hours A Week Of Its Programming To A Local Newspaper. Can It Happen To Your Station?

The University Of Massachusetts just sold 25 hours of primetime programming on WJUL/Lowell, MA to a local newspaper to compensate for budget cuts. Ultimately, the decision was made to help the school raise it's profile and enrollment, but by allowing a corporately run entity into its midst, did the University Of Massachusetts open the door for other "media hungry" companies to take advantage of schools that could use the money and have a radio station at its disposal?

Spotlight: Six Feet under

Many people might thumb their noses at a band like Six Feet Under and its Grade-A death metal, but dig a little deeper, and you'll discover that there's more to this Tampa, Florida band than maggots, murder and intestines.

Essential/Reviews

Mates Of State's Team Boo grabs this week's Essential. Also reviewed: Belle And Sebastian, David Bowie, T.Raumschmiere, the Desert Sessions 9 And 10, the Darkness and Hero Pattern!
