NEWS TO US

ISSUE 901 Calla, the atmospheric band best known as “those guys who opened for Interpol,” have just completed their fourth full-length, Collisions, the follow up to 2003’s subtle and sublime Televise. Produced by Chris Zane with a little help from legendary Australian producer Victor Van Vugt (Nick Cave, Tindersticks), the record also features new bassist, George Gonzalez, bumping Calla’s trio to a fearsome foursome. Though an official release date has not been set, look for the band to tour through March 26 with the French Kicks. Check out a free preview at callamusic.com. Calla back, young’n!

THE LOCUST TO CLEAR CHANNEL: BUZZ OFF!!!

★ If good company creates good cred, then Australian outfit Youth Group have struck gold. Epitaph/Anti—home of CMJ chart darlings Tom Waits, Neko Case, Nick Cave and Sage Francis—have signed the Sydney-bred pop-rock trio in hopes of continuing their Cosa Nostra-like domination of our charts. Epitaph prez Brett Gurewitz was an immediate fan. “On the very first listen,” he says, “Youth Group enchanted me like a new acquaintance that I’d seemingly known my whole life.” As children, CMJ staffers were thrown out of their Youth Group for their inability to “play nice” and for calling the fat kids Piggy after breaking their glasses. Youth Group’s sophomore effort, Skeleton Jar, will be released in the U.S. on May 24.

★ If the Bush administration and VH1’s “celebrity” programming are any indication, we should prepare for at least eight more plagues. Most frighteningly, a swarm of the Locust will be decimating America with their flailing, writhing spazz-grind as part of the Ipecac Geek Show tour—headlined by Patton-led weird merchants Fantômas (supporting their Carl Stalling-core typhoon Suspended Animation) and jazzbo zornographers Trevor Dunn’s Trio Convulsant. But don’t go painting lamb’s blood on your door if you live in Detroit, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Minneapolis or San Francisco... because they ain’t stoppin’ by! The Locust are giving four sweaty, gloved middle fingers to all of the Clear Channel venues booked for the tour via a boycott. Says ipecac.com: “Unfortunately the Locust will not be with us on all the dates. They actually have morals and won’t play Clear Channel venues. Fantômas on the other hand are whores and go where the money is!” The Locust will release their umpteenth plague soundscape (and their first for Ipecac), the Safety Second, Body Last EP, on March 22.

★ Legendary dream-poppers Cocteau Twins will reunite on Saturday, April 30th to play the Coachella Festival in Indio, California, taking the stage for the first time since 1996. Coachella promoter Paul Tollet, who scored the Pixies for last year’s festival, was integral in bringing the legendary 4AD act to the stage. “With Cocteau Twins,” Tollet said, “I just kept persevering.” Details for post-Coachella Cocteau shows are still in the works, but the Twins hope to play a series of festivals starting in June and continuing into the Fall. The Twins (wait, aren’t there thee of them?) join Coldplay, the Chemical Brothers, Wilco, Sage Francis, M83, MF Doom, Nine Inch Nails, New Order, Bright Eyes, Immortal Technique, Gang of Four, the Arcade Fire, the Fiery Furnaces, Black Star and Wolf Eyes (to name a just a few!). So many publicists to ask for free tickets... so little time.

David Steele's UNDERNEATH THE ICE

England's David Steele makes you think a bit of Bowie and Sting with his voice that exudes both deep emotion and warmth. To back up his vocals David delves deep into his songwriting well, combining modern folk and light alt rock styles with thoughtful instrumentation. —Mark E. Waterbury, Music Morsels
